Job Title: Housing Stability Specialist
Reports To: Program Coordinator
FLSA Status: Exempt
Created On: May 2019 (Revised May 2024)
Approved By: Paul Normann

Position Summary:

Under the supervision of the Program Coordinator the Housing Stability Specialist is responsible for: Supporting previously homeless families — who sheltered at Hale Iki — in remaining stably housed through the employment of a Critical Time Intervention (CTI) intensive case-management approach for up to 12 months.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities include the following:

- Collaborating closely with Housing Navigator, the Housing Resource Specialist and other service providers to ensure seamless coordination of housing placement efforts with ongoing case management and supportive services.
- Providing support to program participants and work collaboratively with Housing Navigators to help ensure successful completion of Individualized Housing Plan (IHP) prior to transition into housing.
- Develop individualized Housing Stability Plans (HSP) in collaboration with participants, incorporating CTI principles and evidence-based interventions.
- Provide intensive CTI case management during participants transition into permanent housing and for up to 12 months of stabilization.
- Navigate housing barriers, providing housing navigation support, and advocating for participants throughout the housing placement process
- Conducting screenings and assessments to determine continued eligibility for rapid rehousing assistance, gathering pertinent information about housing needs and preferences.
- Collaborate with families, to identify available housing options within the community, including rental properties, subsidized housing, and other supportive housing resources.
- Establishing and maintaining relationships with landlords and property managers to secure suitable housing options for program participants, negotiating leases, and advocating for participants as needed.
- Assisting participants in understanding rental lease and tenant/ landlord responsibilities, completing housing applications, and navigating any barriers or challenges encountered during the housing search and placement process.
- Conduct comprehensive assessments to identify housing barriers, risk factors, and participant strengths. This includes financial, employment, health, and social conditions.

- Provide support and assistance to participants facing housing-related crises, advocating for necessary resources and interventions to prevent homelessness or housing instability.
 - Coordinate with community resources, including shelters, landlords, and social service agencies, to secure safe and affordable housing options.
 - Implement CTI strategies, including time-limited case management, supportive counseling, and practical assistance, to promote housing stability and self-sufficiency.
 - Advocate on behalf of participants to access housing-related services, entitlements, and benefits.
 - Conduct weekly, bi-weekly and/or monthly home visits and check-ins to monitor progress, address emerging issues, and provide ongoing support.
 - Collaborate with interdisciplinary teams, including mental health professionals, substance abuse counselors, and healthcare providers, to address co-occurring needs and enhance participant outcomes.
 - Maintain accurate and up-to-date participant records, including assessments, service plans, progress notes, and outcomes data.
 - Participate in regular supervision, training, and professional development opportunities to enhance CTI skills and knowledge.
 - Engage with community partners, local agencies, and housing providers to expand housing resources, raise awareness of rapid rehousing programs, and advocate for housing solutions for families experiencing homelessness.
 - Maintain flexibility in working hours, including evenings and weekends, to accommodate participants needs, attend community meetings, or participate in outreach events.
 - Utilizing the Housing First approach in all aspects of this position, ensuring that services are provided without any requirements of the participants for sobriety, participation in treatment, or medication protocol.
 - Perform other duties assigned.
